STUDENT DISCIPLINE NOTICE

NAME OF STUDENT: _____ DATE: _____

Authority Reporting Behavior: _____

Note: Behavior problems are first addressed by the teacher in class. This report indicates that the behavior was so severe or so repetitive that it has been escalated to an administrator.

Description of Behavior:

_____ Defiance or Insubordination (outright refusal to obey authority)

_____ Belligerence (display of angry, insolent behavior)

_____ Physically harmful behavior (to self, others, or property)

_____ General Disrespect (continual disruption, name calling, rudeness, etc)

_____ Other: _____

The above mentioned behavior has resulted in the following consequence:

- _____: Student is being sent home or placed on office restriction for a day. The student will be allowed to return to class the following day, if the parent and teacher have had the opportunity to make contact concerning behavior expectations.
- _____: Student is being sent home immediately and will be placed in Offshore home study for a week. The student, parent, teacher, and administrator will form a student study team to discuss behavior modifications which the student may implement when the student returns to class. Student may return to class only after agreeing to comply with the terms determined by the student study team and signing a Contract of Expectations.
- _____: Student is being sent home immediately, and will be placed in Offshore home study. Student will be assigned an Offshore home study teacher. The student will remain on home study for the rest of the year.
- _____: A student study team meeting will be called to determine the best plan for the student, including other educational placements. Until the study team convenes, the student will remain on Offshore homestudy.
- _____: The student is expelled from the school due to one of the actions delineated as reasons for expulsion in the USA Parent Handbook. The Superintendent of the Del Norte County Office of Education will be notified of this expulsion, and parent is urged to contact the Superintendent to determine an appropriate educational placement for the student.
